

Public Service Announcement

Water Main Break –Bedford Highway Repaired

(Thursday, April 21, 2011) – Halifax Water crews have completed repairs to the water main at the intersection of the Bedford Highway and Hammond's Plains Rd. Water service has been restored.

Some customers may experience temporary discolouration. This discolouration poses no health concerns. Customers may also temporarily experience air in their water lines.

We apologize for any inconvenience to our customers.

–30–

Contact: James Campbell – Halifax Water, Communications & Public Relations Coordinator
490-4604, (C) 476-5885