

Downspout Disconnection

The following is an example of how to disconnect a downspout to ensure no stormwater is entering the wastewater system. When redirecting your downspouts, ensure that you prevent water from flowing onto your neighbour's property.

