

Public Service Announcement

Halifax Peninsula

(Tuesday, October 18, 2011) – Due to ongoing maintenance activity, customers in parts of the Halifax Peninsula may be experiencing reduced water pressure.

This reduction in pressure is temporary and Halifax Water crews are working to restore normal pressures including providing supplementary flow from Dartmouth via the MacDonald Bridge line. This may result in temporary water discoloration.

Halifax Water apologizes for any inconvenience this work may cause.

Contact: James Campbell - Communications & Public
Relations Coordinator - Halifax Water 902-490-4604