Windsor and Young Streets-Water Main Break Repairs

Thursday, January 20, 2011 – Halifax Water crews are currently on-site repairing a water main break at the corner of Windsor St & Young St.

Customers in the area of 6407 - 6577 Bayers Rd, approximately 25 residences, are currently experiencing reduced or no water pressure. Affected customers have been notified.

Crews anticipate having water service restored around supper time this evening.

There is no disruption to traffic as a result of the water main break.

Halifax Water apologizes for any inconvenience caused by this water main break.
