

Accessible Transportation Advisory Committee (ATAC)

ATAC is a group of volunteers that have been elected by Access-A-Bus users to serve on the Committee for a three year term. ATAC makes recommendations to Metro Transit regarding the accessible services it provides. Metro Transit ALF, Ferries, Metro Link, and Access-A-Bus.

The current ATAC Members are:

Elected in 2007 (Up for Election in May - 2010)

Fred Bishop (3 years) (first term)
Gail Vaughan (3years) (first term)
Donnie Mullins (replacement 3 years) (first term)
Bill Moffatt (replacement 3 years) (second term)

Elected in 2008 (Up for Election in May – 2011)

Roy LeBlanc (3 years) (first term)
Joann Walsh (3 years) (first term)
Linda Pottie (3 years) (first term)
Murray Holman (3 years) (second term)

Elected in 2009 (Up for Election in May 2012)

Cathy Cranidge (3years) (second term)
Lynn Demont (3years) (first term)
Thomas Downey (3 years) (first term)
Todd Hacquoil (3years) (second term)

Each ATAC Member can serve a maximum of six (6) years.

The first () represents how long the Committee Member was elected for. (May be less than 3 years if elected to fill a vacancy).

The second () represents if it is the Committee Member's first or second term. First term members can be re-elected at the Annual General Meeting in May.

Second term members have to take a minimum of 1 year off, before they are eligible to come back to ATAC.