

DISTRICT 3

Joseph Yurchesyn

Joseph takes a keen interest in the needs of others and often anticipates their needs. While balancing family life, school, athletics, work, extracurriculars, and studying music he remains hardworking and dedicated in everything he partakes in. He is appreciated and valued for his positivity, good humour, and his kindness which create a supportive volunteer environment. He is a great role model for his commitment to volunteerism at Prince Andrew High School, the Cole Harbour Hurricanes swim team, and at Saint John XXIII parish who benefit greatly from his leadership and enthusiasm in team building.

