

DISTRICT 12

Ifeoma Esonwune

Ifeoma is a dynamic and visionary leader committed to creating social change and making a difference in the world. As a newcomer to Canada, Ifeoma took the initiative to form the Little Learners Social Association and the St. Benedict African Catholic Community. She spends most Saturdays coordinating the events for Little Learners or helping newcomers at St. Benedicts Parish. Ifeoma also volunteers as a Learning Facilitator with Junior Achievers Nova Scotia and with her local Constituency Office. She is passionate about diversity, empowerment and inclusion of women in all walks of life. She is a woman who makes a difference wherever she goes.
