
at Greenvale and Hawthorne is fourteen departments. By using the Assembly Hall as at present two more departments are added. These sixteen rooms will have to house the pupils of thirty departments before the explosion; at such time as more accomodation can be acquired.

Extracted from 101-1M-1917, Dartmouth Annual Report 1917, Report of Board of Commissioners, p.52,
Halifax Municipal Archives