

Layla McFadden

Although Layla's time has been short on the Henderson Sweetman Youth Centre's Youth Committee, Layla has been very active within the Youth Centre for many years.

She works hard, sets up for program events, supports peers during activities, and is available whenever she is needed. Her efforts to help and give back are widely acknowledged among the staff and other youth at the Youth Centre. She inspires others to do the same. Layla's commitment to the Henderson Sweetman Youth Centre truly shows her propensity to become a stronger leader within her community.
