

Jeff Aucoin

Jeff Aucoin is a key pillar in the Dartmouth and Nova Scotia soccer communities. He has been coaching soccer for over 25 years and has served as president on many volunteer boards that have positively impacted our province. Through volunteering, Jeff has built community resilience in soccer. His passion and dedication to sport have inspired many new and experienced leaders to follow his path, enabling the sport to live and thrive in our communities today and years to come.

