

Abraham Amusan

Abraham is respectful, kind and helpful. He enjoys an exciting atmosphere and focuses on putting smiles on people’s faces. He is able to break barriers with humour and is fondly referred to as “Superboy”. Abraham is organized, proactive and exceptionally committed to his work with children and youth. He touches many lives through his volunteering with Trinity Church, Fairview Junior High, and the Alderney Gate Public Library.