

Martina Redden

Martina is a vibrant, passionate and deeply caring individual. She believes it is important to be kind to others, to lend a helping hand in whatever way she can, and to be a role model for others to follow. She is a beacon of light to those around her. Martina is both committed and reliable in all that she does. Martina is truly a community builder. She cares about cultivating a sense of community and inclusion and seeks out opportunities to play her part in multiple ways to make her community stronger. She is an outstanding volunteer and a beautiful human being.