

Neil Parnell

Neil Parnell is the heart of Sheet Harbour and Area Ground Search and Rescue. His hours of volunteer work number in the thousands. He is always ready to listen to you when you need an ear and is never judgmental. Neil has such an easy-going manner that you cannot help but smile in his presence. He is leader of quality with a quick mind. When someone is in distress he snaps to attention and you don't even realize how fast and efficient everything comes together. He doesn't just make people feel they are part of a team; he makes them feel like a part of a family.
