

Colleen Rollings

Colleen has used her time and talents to provide excellent leadership to the Rockingham United Church's Building and Property committee. She oversaw large projects, such as LED light conversion, a roof replacement, and the installation of solar panels, which will all have a huge environmental impact. She is dedicated, hardworking and inspires others in her community to take an active role in making our community a better place.