

Chris Pelham

Chris Pelham has guided two groups, the Bay Rides and the Community Enterprise Centre, through their critical early development years. He does this using a wise balance of inclusion, consensus building and reaching out to others to share in a common vision. His strength and example carries an organization to a higher level of engagement and success.