

Autism Nova Scotia

With central offices in Halifax and nine Chapters province-wide, Autism Nova Scotia supports Autistic individuals and families with programs and services. Supported by hundreds of passionate volunteers, Autism Nova Scotia has brought the autism community together across the province, and meaningfully changed the landscape of support so that Autistic individuals and their families can live their lives fully, with courage and dignity, as valued members of their communities.

