

Gloria Mannette

Gloria is a thoughtful and hardworking volunteer who finds purpose and joy in helping others. She is always willing to lend a hand and is continually thinking of others. Her work ethic is outstanding, and she loves children. Gloria's contributions are sometimes big and sometimes small, but they all add up to make her community a better place by taking care of and appreciating those around her.