- The Co-Chairs introduced and welcomed Yvonne Atwell, the new member replacing Paul Friesen, to the Task Force. Members briefly shared their experiences and oriented Yvonne Atwell to the Task Force.
- Co-Chair MacDonald provided an update on the public engagement proposal and recommendations regarding the format for sessions. The Task Force aims to host multiple public engagement sessions in June of 2019 which are intended be the first of two phases in the public engagement process. The Task Force discussed potential consultant facilitators, guiding questions for engagement sessions, potential dates, times, venues and formats, proposed methods for publicizing the engagement process, and recording methods.
- The Task Force discussed a process for collaborative authorship of the Task Force's recommendation report.
- The Task Force discussed options to receive further information from HRM staff regarding policies and procedures for the management of cultural assets and street naming.
