10.1.5 Work Plan Discussion

The Legislative Assistant provided an overview of the Youth Advisory Committee Terms of Reference as an introduction to the Work Plan session.

The Committee reviewed issues of interest discussed during the Work Plan session at the September 24, 2020 meeting of the Youth Advisory Committee to determine three priorities the Committee will focus in 2021.

The Committee suggested voting through a poll to determine the top 3 priorities of the Committee.

The Legislative Assistant conducted the vote using a polling feature in Zoom and the following three topics were identified as the Committee's 2021 priorities in the Work Plan.

- Mental health accessibility for youth especially with COVID-19
- Systemic racism for Indigenous, Black, African, and African Nova Scotian communities
- Lack of access to programming and opportunities for youth in rural and lower income communities

The Chair encouraged Committee members to do some research before the next meeting and identify community organizations that work within the three priority areas. The research or work of community organizations identified may be shared with the Committee members for further discussion.
