Halifax Regional Municipality

2020-2023 Poet Laureate Application Process

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Municipality defines the Poet Laureate as a resident poet, storyteller or spoken word artist who has achieved excellence amongst their peers and whose body of work demonstrates connection with and relevance to the citizens of the Municipality.

PROGRAM GOALS

The Poet Laureate will serve a term beginning April 2020 and ending in March 31, 2023.

The Poet Laureate will act as an advocate for the literary arts;

As an advocate for poetry, language and the arts, the Poet Laureate will attend events across the Municipality and beyond to promote and attract people to the literary world; and

As an ambassador for Halifax and its residents, the Poet Laureate will broadly reflect the interests, issues and perspectives of the varied communities and individual residents of the Municipality through their work.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Poet Laureate engages the community in activities, programs and events that demonstrate the positive impact of literature, poetry, and spoken word. The Poet Laureate is expected to:

- Compose and present poems for official HRM events and occasions at least once a year to Halifax Regional Council during National Poetry Month (April) and a minimum of 4 other official Municipal events to be determined annually in coordination with relevant municipal staff;
- Make public presentations as the Poet Laureate at a variety of other civic or community events annually, at the discretion of the Laureate;
- Propose a legacy project to be developed and delivered over the course of their term as Laureate, subject to the approval of HRM staff and budget availability;
- Sit on the selection committee for the succeeding Poet Laureate;
- Liaise with municipal staff on a regular basis.

TERM AND SUPPORT

The application period for the selection of the Poet laureate closes February 14, 2020.

The selected Laureate will serve a three-year term beginning April 2020 and ending March 2023. The Poet Laureate will receive an honorarium of $5,000 per year for the three-year term of their mandate.

The Laureate's first official role will be to deliver a reading to Halifax Regional Council at a scheduled meeting in April 2020 (exact date TBD) which will serve as the Laureate's official introduction.

The Laureate, in coordination with Municipal staff, will commit to 4 additional official appearances per year. Certain appearances may be requested by staff. Others may be proposed by the Laureate. In all instances, the 4 official engagements must be determined collaboratively and with the agreement of both parties. The schedule of appearances will be negotiated annually.

Finally, the Laureate will be invited to propose a Legacy Project during their tenure. This project may take many possible forms, including a publication, a community event or event series, public or community art initiative, workshops or educational initiatives, as examples. These proposals will be conditional on the approval of municipal staff and subject to budget availability.

Additional program resources to support the activities of the Poet Laureate may be available at the discretion of Municipal staff, subject to budget availability.

The Halifax Regional Municipality administers the Poet Laureate program, including:

- Coordination of the nominations process;
- Facilitation of the selection process, including appointment of the Selection Committee;
- Preparation of the Poet Laureate Agreement;
- Regular meeting with the Laureate and event coordination; and
- Provision of administrative support to the Poet Laureate including publicity, promotion and project coordination.

SELECTION PROCESS

Submissions are reviewed by peers in the field of poetry and the literary arts, poetry and the spoken word, and citizens with a vested interest in promoting the literary arts within HRM.

Selection is based on the following scoring rational:

- Community and Professional Standing | The candidate's contribution to the field of poetry, including storytelling and spoken word, and the literary and cultural life of the Halifax Regional Municipality. The impact they have made within the Municipality, and amongst peers.
(20 points)
- Excellence in Craft | The quality of the candidate's submitted work in relation to the expectations of the Poet Laureate position.
(30 points)
- Citizen Engagement | The candidate's preparedness to accept the responsibilities of the position. The candidate is accustomed to public presentation, citizen engagement and community outreach.
(25 points)
- Goals and Objectives | The candidate's goals listed for the two-year term as Poet Laureate are realistic, achievable and relevant to the citizens of the Halifax Regional Municipality.
(25 points)

Applications must be submitted by email to artgrants@halifax.ca.

Please Use Subject Line: 2020-2023 HRM Poet Laureate

Applications must be received by 4:00PM on Friday February 14. Late submissions will not be accepted.

The selection committee will meet to review submissions; based on the initial assessment, a shortlist of the highest scoring applicants will be invited to take part in Phase II of the selection process. All nominees will be notified of the results of Phase I of the selection process by letter, within 4 weeks of the nomination deadline.

PHASE II: SHORTLISTED APPLICANTS

Shortlisted nominees will take part in individual interviews with the selection committee in February/March 2020.

After all shortlisted candidates have been interviewed, the selection committee will reconvene to determine the Municipality's 2020 - 2023 Poet Laureate. The basis for selection will use the same evaluation criteria as that of the Phase 1 process, with members of the shortlist re-scored and ranked on the basis of their interviews.

The successful candidate will receive a notification letter and contract that will detail the terms and conditions of the Poet Laureate position.

All shortlisted candidates will be contacted directly with the results before the public announcement.
